

BIOGRAPHY OF LUCY FIELDS

Lucy Fields was born and educated in Barbados. After completing a Bachelor of Arts degree in French and Spanish at the University of the West Indies, Cave Hill, Barbados, she began her career in Education. She has served in several roles in education in Barbados and Ontario - French and Spanish Teacher, as well as part time Tutor at the Language Centre of the Barbados Community College in Spanish and English and a Second Language. In Ontario, Lucy has served in various roles as a teacher: classroom teacher, French teacher, Special Education teacher and Literacy Coach. Until her recent retirement, she has served as Principal in the elementary panel in French Immersion schools.

Lucy's passion has always been to ensure inclusion and equity for all students especially those who are marginalized. She has a strong passion for students who have special needs and for the instructional approaches used to educate boys. She continues to serve as a mentor to new school administrators informally.

Lucy is married and has 2 sons and 2 grandchildren. In her spare time, Lucy loves to read, listen to music and continues singing in choirs. She also enjoys travelling, playing board games and spending quality time with her family.